

Your personal mortgage professional for life

Andrea Cox, Loan Officer

Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina. In 1991, after graduating from the University of Buenos Aires with an accounting degree and having worked for Price Waterhouse and Coopers, she moved to NYC. There, it was her ability to deliver excellence that helped her build an outstanding reputation and climb the corporate ladder at Hachette Filipacchi Media U.S., Inc. Berterlsmann Inc and SAP.

Nine years ago Andrea and her husband made Park City home. Two years ago she decided to use her 28 yrs of experience in finance, project management and business development to become a mortgage professional. Her integrity and empathetic client interaction to find the right loan program for her clients is her true passion. Serving and building long trusting relationships with her clients and partners is her true calling. She is always here to help you with any questions you might have because you are important to her, whether the result is that you need a loan or not. Andrea offers free debt consultation upfront to ensure you know all your options.

Empathetic

The loan process can be stressful. Having a mortgage professional that cares is key.

Accountable

Promises mean nothing when there isn't follow through. You can trust me to come through on my word.

Results Driven

I am committed to driving the process, in the timeline you want, while ensuring every piece is in place for success.
